

Association of Clinical Pathologists'

31st ACP Senior Management & Leadership Course

run by Pathologists for Pathologists

Tuesday 12th – Thursday 14th September 2017

Hardwick Hall Hotel, Sedgefield, County Durham

This is a wide ranging, residential, 3 day course introducing management issues relevant to the running of a modern pathology service.

It is intended for specialist registrars and trainees in pathology in their final year of training, clinical scientists and those who have held their first consultant post for less than 2 years.

Course organisers: Dr Gavin Spickett, Dr Helen Bourne and Dr Bridget Wilkins

The course will address the following subject areas:

- Funding & structure of the NHS
- Clinical governance
- Financial Management
- Business Planning
- Demand Management
- Leadership skills and Team-working
- Future organisation of pathology services in the UK

Course fee: ACP Members - Free of Charge

Non ACP Members:

Trainees – Free of charge (includes 1 year free membership to the ACP)

Consultants – £105 (includes 1 year free membership to the ACP)

Includes a course information handbook, pre-course briefing materials, en-suite accommodation, all meals, refreshments and course dinner.

The hotel is set in the grounds of an 18th century country park:

www.hardwickhallhotel.co.uk

In previous years the course has been heavily oversubscribed and early application is encouraged.

Full details from:

Paulene Horrocks (course administrator) Association of Clinical Pathologists

Tel: 01273 775700

Email:

Application form:

Fax: 01273 773303

office@pathologists.org.uk

www.pathologists.org.uk